COXEY DID NOT SPEAK.

Neither Was the Meeting on the Capitol Steps Held.

THE POLICE INTERFERED.

Marshal Browne and Christopher Columbus Jones Arrested and Locked Up. Fortunately There Was No Casualty. Washington's Greatest Problem Still Unsolved—The Army Is There to Stay.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—The march of Coxe's commonwealth army, which started from Massillon, O., on Easter Sunday, ended yesterday in interruption by the police. Fortunately there were no casualties, and last night General Coxe addressed his burlesque army in camp while Marshal Carl Browne was in a police station cell and Christopher Columbus Jones, leader of the Philadelphia commune, and the comedian of the movement, endeavored to appropriate a share of the martyrdom in an adjoining cell.

The performance enacted within the shadow of the Capitol yesterday is without a counterpart in the memory of Washingtonians. Over the broad, smooth plaza of several acres facing the east front of the Capitol was packed a crowd of men and women numbering 10,000. The Capitol steps and portico under the Grecian pillars were packed with people of both sexes, well dressed, and most of the members of congress in the throng.

An early adjournment had been taken by the senate on account of the death of Senator Stockbridge, but the house not wishing to seem terrorized by the demonstration, went through the semblance of a session with a handful of members. More than 200 city police reinforced the Capitol officers. Detectives from several cities were also sprinkled through the crowd, for the concentration of lawless local characters gave just grounds for apprehension of trouble apart from the presence of the Coxeites.

It was shortly after 1 o'clock when the army halted in the street south of the Capitol grounds. Its five-mile march down from Brightwood through the principal streets of the city had been witnessed by thousands. There were 500 men in line. Mrs. Annie L. Diggs, the Populistic agitator of Kansas, in a barouche, Coxe's 17-year-old daughter in white, on a cream colored steed, representing the Goddess of Peace; Carl Browne on a great gray Percheron stallion, General Jacob Schleicher Coxe, his wife, the infant Legal Tender Coxe, together in another carriage, Virginia Lavalette, said to be an actress, on horseback draped in an American flag, as the Philadelphia commune's Goddess of Peace, the unemployed carrying white flags of peace on staves and the non-descript banners setting forth the doctrine of reeducation, good roads and enmity to plutocrats, sprinkled through the caravan.

Marshal Browne halted the procession there in the street, walked back to Coxe's carriage, the general kissed his wife, then the two moving spirits of the affair forced their way over the plaza to the Capitol steps, their men acting under orders standing in their tracks. After Coxe and Browne passed a yelling crowd of several hundred men, most of them following Browne, conspicuous because of his unique costume. Traipsing and tearing its way through the costly shrubbery the mob went, while the squad of mounted police which had headed the parade, dazed for a moment by the unexpected move, charged recklessly into their midst. Coxe was confronted by the police as he took off his hat to speak on the steps, and his demand for his constitutional rights, as he called it, being refused, thrust upon them a printed protest, which proved to be a well worded epitome of Populistic doctrines.

Meanwhile Carl Browne was being literally dragged by the collar of his coat through the crowd toward the nearest station, after he had made a fight to retain his banner. Two police captains, a lieutenant and sergeant thrust the mild mannered Coxe, without violence, back across several hundred feet of humanity to his carriage, mounted police were forcing their horses among the people, several of them cracking their clubs over the heads of the nearest persons, women were shrieking in terror, men were yelling fiercely, some were being knocked down and trampled upon. For five minutes there was riot in that section of the mob in front of the east steps which occupied about an acre of the asphalt. Then the two agitating spirits having been removed and half a dozen particularly belligerent men having been taken in by the police the disturbance was quelled without serious injury to a single person.

Somehow the army was started off toward its new camp between double lines of police, followed by a mob of thousands, cheering like demons for Coxe and Browne. Within an hour the Capitol grounds had almost regained their normal quiet with only a few hundred people strolling around.

General Coxe accepted the situation philosophically. His army was put to work clearing up the new camping grounds for occupancy, while Coxe drove over to the office of the district commissioner with an eye to business. He made application of them for the necessary license to charge admission to his camp. The commissioners desired time to consider the proposition, so acting upon their suggestion Mr. Coxe went to the clerk and by paying $5, secured a license for one day only.

"I have no complaint," Coxe said, "to make as far as the police are concerned. They treated me with great consideration, but they had to carry out the law, even if it was an unjust one. My speechmaking, however, at the Carroll is over, and I shall not again attempt it. It would be no use. The American eagle did a good deal of squealing today, but that was to be expected. The authorities pinched him rather hard. He'll have his say, however, sooner or later."

The most serious chapter of the affair for Washington, the problem of what is to be done with the army, remains unsolved. Coxe has no intention of leading his recruits away, but still declares that the movement has just begun; that they will stay here until congress provides for them by passing his bills.

Affairs at the White House and executive departments continued with their usual serenity all day. The cabinet met as usual at 11 o'clock while Coxe's army was pursuing its march to the Capitol. Earlier in the day, at 10 o'clock, President Cleveland had visited a convention of physicians held in the National theater on Pennsylvania avenue in the line of march where people were crowding the streets.

Carl Browne and Christopher Columbus Jones will be tried in the police court. Browne will be arraigned on the general charge of violating a United States statute, the one regulating the use of the Capitol grounds. Probably Jones will be charged with disorderly conduct. Washington citizens wish most fervently that this trial might mark the passing of Coxeism.

AFTER THE RIOT WAS OVER.

A Talk With the Leaders and What They Intend to Do.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Jesse Coxe led the army to camp, his white clad sister, the Goddess of Peace, retaining her courage admirably.

A squad of 28 police, under Lieutenant Amies, meantime had marched over to the army and lined up to preserve order as it departed. A gray haired man, with a G. A. R. button on his coat, climbed up the steps of an adjacent house and began a harangue upon the rights of American citizens, which drew a fraction of the crowd about. The army, as it marched down the street, was followed by hundreds of poorly dressed men and women, who cheered it all the way without intermission, and shouted loudly for cheers for Coxe and Browne.

General Coxe talked to an Associated Press reporter when he reached the new camp.

"I was careful to walk on the sidewalk and trespass upon no local regulations when I went up to the steps," he said, "this is the beginning of the movement, that is all. The people are with us, the common people. Look at the thousands who cheered our cause today. We will remain right here, other bands of unemployed with join us; congress will see the will of the people and will pass our bills."

Browne and Jones, who were arrested with him, were marched off to the police station and locked up in adjacent cells. The entries in their respective cases were:

Carl Browne, aged 44, occupation, artist and journalist, single, charged with disorderly conduct; complainant, Officer Edward J. Scramlin, arrested by Officer Robertson.

Christopher Columbus Jones, 59 years old, punemaker, married, charged with disorderly conduct; complainant, Officer Collin Flithers, arrested by Officer Auldridge.

Browne appeared cast down and crushed when he appeared at the door of his cell, in reply to a reporter's knock. He was asked if he desired to make a statement.

"I don't wish to say anything until I hear from the American people," was his response.

Citizen Jones heard the answer of the marshal, and made a similar reply to the same query.

After the disturbances had passed away there was a conference between the local prosecuting attorney and the police authorities as to the trial of the prisoners, Browne and Jones. Assistant District Attorney Mulowney conferred with Major Moore, chief of police, and it was decided the two men should be arraigned before Judge Miller of the police court.

Consideration was next given to the charge to be brought against the prisoners and Mr. Mulowney decided to make the charge on the broad ground of a violation of the United States statute. It was so entered in the blotter of the station. Under this allegation specific charges will be made of entering the Capitol grounds unlawfully and of disorderly conduct.

Mr. Mulowney also directed the officers not to accept collateral in lieu of bail. Browne's attorney was told that any time bail was ready Judge Miller would fix the amount, and the clerk of the court would make out the papers necessary to release the prisoners from custody.

Mr. Hymun said he expected to secure bail without trouble.

He was asked as to the line of defense.

"We will not only defend," said he, "but we may also adopt affirmative action through the courts. The first thing will be to defend the prisoners against the charge that they unlawfully entered the Capitol grounds. That involves a test of the law forbidding peaceable assemblies in the Capitol grounds, and we will take that law to the courts of last resort. Then the affirmative action will depend on circumstances, but it is certain that if Browne or Jones have been injured in any way, someone will have to make ample reparation."

Late in the afternoon Browne's bail was fixed at $500. Mrs. Emily Briggs, a wealthy resident of this city, and Mrs. Anna Hahn, a prominent labor sympathizer, undertook the bond and the chief marshal was set free. Mrs. Briggs conveyed him in her carriage to her home, when he took dinner, and then he returned to the army in its new camp near the river.

Christopher Columbus Jones was left to languish in the station house. None of the Coxe people seem to be particularly interested in his condition or fate, and it is doubtful if any effort will be made to get him out of jail.

On reaching the camp, Browne betook himself immediately to the tent at headquarters, where he refused to see any of his followers or outsiders, except a selected few. Shortly after 8 o'clock Coxe made his appearance in the tent and listened with careful attention to the marshal's account of his arrest.

After mastering the situation he had the gasoline lamps lighted on either side of the platform in a lower corner of the new camp, and a few minutes later he was addressing an audience made up of a limited portion of his followers and such curious men and women as were willing to pay 10 cents to come in and see what was going on. Coxe said he was well satisfied with what had transpired during the day. He believed that the fact the common people of the United States represented by his followers, had been denied the right peaceably to assemble and state their grievances, would be heralded throughout the land and would result in bringing many thousands of the unemployed to this city. He still advised peace and declared that he believed his two bills would be passed by congress inside of two or three weeks.

There was a large crowd about the camp during the evening and a large detail of police was posted there to prevent disorder.

GALVIN'S GANG.

Wheeling Trades Assembly Will Pay Their Way to Pittsburgh.

WHEELING, May 2.—Galvin's contingent of Frye's army reached Wheeling at 8:30 p. m. They were conducted through the city by the police to a camping ground on the island. All along the streets on the march to the camp, the army was watched by good humored, but not sympathetic crowds of thousands of men, women and children.

At a meeting of the Ohio valley trades assembly yesterday evening it was decided to appropriate funds to pay the railroad fare of Galvin and his 200 men to Pittsburgh. They will remain in camp here until Thursday morning. The trades assembly adopted a resolution denouncing the treatment of Coxe and Browne by the police at Washington.

LABOR LEGISLATION.

Consul Meeker Has Something to Say About It in England.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Claudio Meeker, consul at Bradford, Eng., has contributed an interesting chapter to the history of labor legislation in a report to the department of state upon experiments with the eight-hour system by English employers of labor. He says that though attempted legislation in that direction has been several times defeated, the fight is to be renewed and the eight-hour bill will soon come up before parliament.

At the Sanford iron works, near Manchester, the system was tried for one year, at the firm's own instance, to ascertain how far the system of shorter hours of work might be put in force without injury to the mechanical trades. The full complement of men is 1,200, and the wages paid 48 hours weekly, were the same as for 58 hours under the old system. About 12 trades were represented.

The trial was in a year of exceeding depression, when the prices obtained for the output were the lowest on record, but the invoice value of the goods produced amounted to the average rate of value of the six preceding years. This was regarded as an unfavorable condition for the test. One-third of the men employed were on piecework wages and that system received a thorough trial as well as the weekly wage system. The production during the trial year was actually greater, but the profit on account of cheap prices was somewhat less, but the economy in the shorter hours for burning gas and fuel, for wear and tear of tools, machinery, etc., exactly equalized the increased labor cost.

On piecework the wages realized were 1.41 per cent less than the standard. The figures in this, however, showed a steady adaptation to the altered conditions and made it evident that as the work proceeded the difference would entirely disappear. The foreman's reports show that the men were more steady at work, more cheerful and less given to insubordination under the eight-hour system. The moral tone was also improved and all seemed brighter and more cheerful.

Accidentally Shot.

ENGLISH, Ind., May 2.—While Marshal Kattman of Eckerty was dressing, preparatory to a trip to Louisville, a revolver in his hip pocket accidentally slipped out and was discharged as it fell by the hammer striking a chair. The bullet took effect in his left shoulder, and the surgeon's fear that it entered the body close to the neck and that it could not be extracted. His chances for recovery are uncertain.

Arrested For Forgery.

ATCHISON, Kan., May 2.—Allen Alfred, son of a capitalist of Texas, at Dallas, was arrested here last night for forging the name of Kilpatrick Brothers, railroad contractors, at Beatrice, Neb., to numerous checks. When arrested he was eloping with Miss Anna Miller of Beatrice.

Collision of River Vessels.

CARRO, Ill., May 2.—The towboat Iron Dukes and the Alice Brown, while backing out at Sender towhead, came in collision, sinking the Iron Duke and a large cargo of the Alice Brown, containing 12,000 bushels of coal, in 12 feet of water. She can't be raised. No one was hurt.

Children's Home Burned.

OAKLAND, Cal., May 2.—The children's home at Temesca was burned to the ground at 1 o'clock yesterday. One hundred babies and children were safely removed.

RIOTING ON MAY DAY.

Serious Disturbances Take Place in Cleveland.

SEVERAL PEOPLE ARE INJURED.

Unemployed Foreigners Take Possession of the Streets and For a While Have Things Their Own Way—Disturbances Occur at Several Places Abroad but Nothing of a Serious Nature.

CLEVELAND, May 2.—The unemployed of Cleveland celebrated May day with a meeting, a procession that was marked by several riotous demonstrations, and by listening to and applauding a rank anarchist address on the public square when they had finished their march. The day was full of excitement. The procession, which moved shortly after 10 o'clock in the forenoon, was composed of between 6,000 and 10,000 men and boys, mostly foreigners. They followed a United States flag and started in military order. They had not gone a mile, however, before the procession collided with an electric car. The motorman refused to stop when commanded to do so, and the car was wrecked.

A few minutes later another car was met. A policeman on the front platform commanded the mob to give way. When they refused to do so, he fired his revolver into the air. Many of the marchers drew pistols and began firing, at least 100 shots being discharged, but nobody was hurt. Some of the bullets went through the window of a store, however, and two of the clerks had narrow escapes.

The procession was broken up temporarily, but the lines were reformed. Soon a third car was met, and when the driver refused to stop he was felled with a brick, though not seriously hurt. The line of march was across the South and West Sides and back to the square. As the procession moved up Superior street on the return it filed that thoroughfare from building to building. Streetscars were stopped and all traffic suspended for a time.

The driver of a truck, who refused to take his team out of the way, received a bad wound in the side of the face from an iron bolt thrown by one of the marchers. During all these disturbances not a single arrest was made, the police evidently not desiring to court trouble with a mob in such an ugly temper.

When the procession had returned to the square several speeches were made by Central Labor union leaders who advised the men to go home, but an anarchist finally got hold of the crowd and made a speech which started another procession. It headed out through the manufacturing district in the eastern part of the city and it was feared that more violence would be committed, but nothing more serious than the breaking of a few windows in a factory occurred.

MAY DAY ABROAD.

Nothing of a Serious Nature Occurs in Any of the Great Cities.

LONDON, May 2.—Dispatches received here from the different capitals of Europe show that May day passed without any serious disturbance.

In this city the anarchists received a lesson from a mob in Hyde Park, and the socialists made a demonstration in the same place.

All was quiet at Berlin and Vienna, although meetings of workmen and others were dispersed by the police in both those cities.

A large meeting was held at Marseilles, but no serious disturbance took place.

At Hamme, Belgium, there was some rioting, but order was soon restored by the police.

May day passed off quietly in Paris and throughout France generally.

No May day disorders occurred in Rome or in other parts of Italy.

Orderly meetings were held in the other leading towns of the continent.

BATTLESHIP TEXAS.

The Plans Purchased in England Result in Her Being a Failure.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Serious structural defects have developed in the battleship Texas, and the secretary of the navy has ordered a board, of which Captain Miller, commanding the Raleigh, is president, to investigate the matter and report to the department.

This ship was built at the Norfolk navyyard on designs purchased in England, which have caused more trouble to the government than those of any other vessel in the service.

It is five years since the vessel's keel was laid, and it will take five more to put her in shape for sea service, conceding that she can ever be made strong enough to go to sea in safety.

INDIANA ELECTIONS.

Republican Victories in Nearly All the Towns.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 2.—Municipal elections were held in a number of cities in Indiana yesterday. Returns indicate Republican victories in a majority of cases.

In Terre Haute the Republicans elected their candidates by the largest majority known in years and secured nine out of 11 councilmen.

Coshien reports a clear Republican sweep.

Frankfort and Crawfordsville tell the same story.

Laporte, heretofore a Democratic stronghold, reports the election of every Republican candidate with the exception of marshal and one councilman. The city is wild with Republican enthusiasm.

South Bend says the Republicans have elected all their nominees.

At Columbus, which has for years been Democratic, the Republicans elected every one of their candidates.

At Kokomo the Republicans cleaned up all but one alderman.

At Columbia City the Democrats elected their entire city ticket, but the Republicans gained a councilman.

At Covington the Democrats also elected their ticket and one councilman.

The Republicans made a clean sweep in New Albany, electing their full ticket, with the exception of one councilman. This is the first time in the history of the city that the Republicans have had control of the city government.

In Jeffersonville the Republicans elected their full ticket, with the exception of treasurer and one councilman.

Logansport Republicans elected a mayor with 350 majority to overcome from the last election.

Tipton, Plymouth, Seymore, Columbus, Elwood, Huntington and South Bend, all Democratic last time, went Republican.

Ostrander, the Republican candidate for mayor at Richmond, received a majority of 1,371, an unprecedented figure there.

The Democrats elected their mayor and other officials in North Vernon, heretofore a strong Republican town. Their entire ticket was also elected in Washington for the first time in many years.

Covington, Lebanon, Aurora, Martinsville, Peru, Delphi and Rushville and a few other towns show slight Democratic gains.

Wabash, Crawfordsville, Connersville, Shelbyville, Muncie, Union City, Winchester, Valparaiso, Bedford, Bloomington, Attica, Greencastle, all went Republican, with more or less of a gain.

Democratic Fort Wayne elects a Republican mayor with a council of nine Democrats to six Republicans.

Lafayette reports an overwhelming Republican victory, their entire city ticket and five councilmen out of seven being elected.

At Decatur the Republicans elected all but the city marshal. This is the first time in the history of the city that a Republican ticket has been elected.

PIPING GAS INTO OHIO.

Legal Proceedings to Be Taken Against the Big Pipe Line.

REDKEY, Ind., May 2.—The Ohio and Indiana Pipe Line company, with a paid up capital of $1,000,000, has let the contract for 75 wells to be drilled at once in the counties of Jay and Delaware. The contractors unloaded five strings of tools here yesterday, and will have more here in a few days. The company has located offices here and has the right of way.

It will lay two 8-inch mains from different fields to a point three miles south of here, at which place a $100,000 pumping station will be erected, and it will run a 10-inch pipe line from there to supply natural gas to Lima, St. Mary's, Piqua, Troy, Greenville, Dayton and other places in Ohio. It is rumored here that this company will pipe Union City, as their pipe line will run north of that place.

People are indignant that gas should be taken from this section in such quantities, and efforts are being made, in connection with Dunkirk, Anderson and Alexandria parties, to fight the piping of gas out of this state by this or any other company. Legal proceedings are liable to commence at once.

A Newspaper Solicitor Missing.

JEFFERSONVILLE, May 2.—J. H. Carney, an allround newspaper solicitor, missing from Evansville, Owensboro, Ky., Indianapolis, Toledo, Cincinnati and other points, where he claimed that he had been employed as solicitor for various newspapers, but more recently employed on The Journal of this city in the capacity of solicitor of subscribers, has left for parts unknown, taking with him about $40 of the firm's money. The embosser is about six feet high, dark complexion, smooth, sharp features, beardless, and weighs about 140 pounds.

An Outrage by Tramps.

UPPER SANDUSKY, O., May 2.—Four tramps riding in a Pennsylvania freight car at Forest yesterday evening, discovered that a fifth one had money. They told him to hand it over at the point of two revolvers. He refused. They shot him and then threw him out while the train was running 25 miles an hour. The injured man's name is G. W. Waring. He said he lived in Tennessee. He was not seriously hurt. The tramps escaped.

MANY INDICTMENTS RETURNED.

Florida Bank Officials Held For Embezzlement and Making False Entries.

JACKSONVILLE, FLA., April 20.—The grand jury of the United States Court, which for some time has been in session in this city, investigating the failure of the Orlando National Bank, which occurred last August, to-day brought in indictments as follows: Fifteen each against Nat Poyntz and Ollie Poyntz; three each against W. R. O'Neil, J. B. Paramore and K. H. Lee. All are charged with violations of section 5209 Revised Statutes of the United States, referring to embezzlement of funds, misappropriation of funds and making false entries. The grand jury is still investigating the case, and is expected to find to-morrow about forty more indictments against the officers, directors and stockholders of the bank.

Nat and Ollie Poyntz were President and Cashier, respectively, and the others were directors.

The men indicted are among the most prominent residents of the State. The bank was thought to be one of the strongest in Florida, and its failure and subsequent developments caused great excitement, nearly every resident of Orlando and Osage counties losing large sums.

The above is a special to the Louisville Courier-Journal. The many friends of Messrs. Nat Poyntz and Ollie Poyntz will never believe they have been guilty of any intentional wrong doing.

Rev. C. J. Nugent and wife, of Paris, left Tuesday for Memphis, to attend the General Conference of the M. E. Church, South.

JAMES BROWN, Captain.

On the 1st of July a new money order system will go into effect in the postoffice by which both large and small sums of money can be sent by letter with safety and at greatly reduced rates. With the institution of the new system the postal notes will be abolished, as there will be no further need of them.

COLONEL CRADDOCK, of the Paris Kentuckian, was riding over to Lexington a few days ago when he accidentally knocked off a stranger's silk hat and it fell out of the window. The stranger coolly reached over and taking the Colonel's hat, put it on and remarked it was "just a fit." The Colonel went on to Lexington hatless.

THIRTY-FIVE years ago Mrs. Milton Stevenson, of Georgetown, while brushing some broken glass from a table, stuck a piece of glass in the palm of her hand. At intervals since the hand and arm have given her considerable pain. A day or so ago she discovered a pimple on the inside of her arm near the elbow, and on picking it with a needle extracted the piece of glass.

AT BLUE LICK SPRINGS.

Two Mason County Schools Celebrate Arbor Day 'Neath the Cedars at the Famous Resort.

Messrs. W. R. and T. V. Chandler, principals of Mayslick and Lewisburg schools, gave the pupils an excursion to Blue Licks Springs last Friday. Mr. Joe Brown ran his two large omnibuses on the occasion. He carried thirty-five pupils from Mayslick and thirty from Lewisburg in and on each 'bus. The party left Mayslick at 7 a. m., a happy crowd, waving banners and singing "America." The day was perfect and the schools had a delightful trip.

At noon in the "Pavilion," on two long tables, a rich dinner was spread and was much enjoyed by all. This called for one more drink of the pure water. Then a march to the corner-stone of the monument—which should be standing now—where the pupils, resting upon the soft moss beneath the cedars, listened with great interest to short addresses on the battle of Blue Licks, by Rev. F. M. Tinder, Mr. Benj. Longnecker and Mr. S. H. Mitchell.

'Mid so much beautiful scenery, the seeking of relics in the cedars, gaming, swinging and boating, all furnished too much pleasure for one day.

The assistant teachers, Miss June Pelham and Mrs. Calvert, also Messrs. Tinder, Longnecker, Mitchell, E. Clift and others went to chaperone the party and all were returned safely home at 8 o'clock in the evening.

SECTION 168 of the Constitution provides that "no municipal ordinance shall fix a penalty for a violation thereof at less than that imposed by statute for the same offense." Many towns in the State impose by ordinance a penalty of only a fine for carrying concealed a deadly weapon. The statute of the State provides for both fine and imprisonment. The town ordinances are absolutely void. If enforced it is without sanction of law. If a man who may be imprisoned for non-payment of a fine under such an ordinance shall sue the officers he can make it damaging to their pockets. This practice goes in many places, and the people submit to it, says the Frankfort correspondent of the Courier-Journal.

SPRINGFIELD Church, Bath county, is 100 years old this year. This old church was organized by Joseph Price Howe in 1794. At its recent meeting at Cynthiana, West Lexington Presbytery, by unanimous vote, determined to hold its next meeting at Springfield church, and take part in celebrating the centennial of the oldest church in Eastern Kentucky. This meeting will be held in September.

THE suit of Mrs. Lizzio Smith against Miss Jennie Souly for $5,000 damages will come up next Saturday in the Fleming Circuit Court. The parties live at Elizaville. The plaintiff claims she was damaged by some pins which she alleges were placed in her pew at church by the defendant.

Resolutions of Respect.

The following resolutions of Washington Camp No. 3, P. O. S. of A., of Maysville, Ky., were unanimously adopted in memory of Dr. Charles Wardle:

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Almighty in His infinite wisdom to remove from our midst our dear beloved brother, Dr. Charles Wardle, therefore, be it

Resolved, That by his death the order loses a beloved and efficient member and his family a loving husband and father.

Resolved, That we meekly submit to Him who doeth all things well, and that while we bow in humble submission to His will, we feel that our loss is His eternal gain.

Resolved, That our sincere and heartfelt sympathy be extended to the bereaved family and friends in this hour of sore bereavement, fondly cherishing the hope that he has gone from this subordinate camp to the grander campment above, to dwell with the fathers of our free America; there to receive a higher degree of honor.

Resolved, That as a token of our love and esteem for our deceased brother, we drape our charter and altar for a period of sixty days.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes, and a copy be sent to the bereaved family and friends and to be published in the daily papers, also the Camp News of Philadelphia.

JAMES W. PIPER, Committee.
GEORGE CRAWFORD, Committee.
Attest: FRANK DIETRICH, R. S.

HARRIS DIDN'T SHIRK HIS DUTIES.

One thing which is not generally known, even by many members of the last General Assembly is that the law requiring the Pages to be elected was repealed, and in future they will be appointed by the Sergeant-at-Arms, as they always had been until this year. This will be approved by all those who have had any experience in such matters as the spectacle of a Democratic caucus wrangling until 2 o'clock in the morning over the election of four little boys was ridiculous, to say the least. Then again, there were several little fellows who went to the expense of coming to Frankfort and remaining two or three days elbowing with the members, and, of course, the disappointment of defeat was keenly felt by them. Again, the boys were not responsible to any one in particular, and were not as attentive to their duties as they would have been had they been appointed by the Sergeant-at-Arms and responsible directly to him.

Editor Bulletin: The above is taken from the Courier-Journal. As for the other Pages, I do not know what they did, but as for myself, I can say I did my duty faithfully. I refer to Hon. R. K. Hart, Hon. Walter Matthews, Judge Wm. Beckner, Dr. Wm. Bowman and Colonel W. W. Baldwin. Respectfully,
HARRIS ALEXANDER, Maysville, Ky.

THE MINERS ALL OUT.

The Strike in Illinois Is Said to Be Complete.

OTHER STATES THE SAME.

Illinois Men Had No Grievance but Simply Obeyed the Order.—The Illinois Central Railroad Already Short of Coal—Everything Quiet at the Different Places. Other Labor Troubles.

CENTRALIA, Ills., May 2.—The strike in the mines here is complete. The operators have not been conferred with, and no grievance has been submitted for adjustment. About 1,200 individuals, men, women and children are without means of support. There is no disturbance. The Illinois Central railway gets most of its coal for three divisions of the road at this place, and there is now no coal in sight even for local consumption.

The miners at Sandoval and Odin, a few miles south of here, are still at work, but the Odin mine is expected to close up. The Sandoval mine pays by the day and the men there have so far refused to join the strike, but the opinion is that they will not hold out through the week.

Will Vote on the Question.

PANA, Ills., May 2.—The striking coal miners from Taylorville, who failed to reach here Monday night, came in on the evening train last night. Upon their arrival Mayor Haywood ordered the saloons closed, which order was immediately complied with. At the mass meeting there were addresses in English, Polish and German. Another mass meeting is to be held to vote on the question of joining in the general strike.

Acme Miners Not Out.

CHARLESTON, May 2.—The Handley miners came out yesterday after a big meeting. A meeting was held on Cabin creek to get the Acme miners out, but the Acme miners sent no delegate. A committee was sent to Acme last night to try to induce the men to quit. On Friday President McBride of the United Mine Workers will address a meeting at Montgomery.

Strikers Evicted.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., May 2.—The families of 18 strikers were evicted at Oliver yesterday by the sheriff's deputies. No violence was attempted during the work of eviction.

Kansas Miners Fail to Come Out.

PITTSBURG, Kan., May 2.—The miners are all working in this district notwithstanding the notices that were posted a couple of days ago, to go out May 1.

END OF AN EIGHTEEN-DAY STRIKE.

The Great Northern Trains Will Soon Be Running Again.

ST. PAUL, May 2.—After being tied up for 18 days almost completely from end to end, the Great Northern railway system will now resume work, the great strike being declared off last night. It is practically a victory for the American Railway union, and President Debs, although the committee from the commercial bodies of the two cities was largely responsible for the result.

The governor had tried mediation, suggesting a bitration, but his action did not meet with success and two other similar attempts to bring about arbitration failed, the union leaders claiming that their demands were just and did not admit of arbitration, although they finally said they were willing to have the matter submitted to the citizens' committee and would be governed by their decision.

Various conferences were held by that committee with President Hill and with the labor leaders. Mr. Hill was pronounced in favor of arbitration all along, and agreed to any system of arbitration if the men would resume work. Finally the committee got them to meet yesterday afternoon and the result is that the strike has been declared off and the men will return to work at once. The conference went over all details thoroughly and Mr. Hill made great concessions to the men, the result being that the whole difficulty was solved then and there.

It was settled really by arbitration, the citizens' committee being the judges, but the strikers gained all their demands, while the company secured a settlement through arbitration as President Hill desired. The 4,500 miles of track will be opened for business by over 5,000 employees, and the entire northwest will be released from the freight and passenger blockade that has oppressed it for over two weeks.

N. G. BUCK RAN AMUCK.

One Person Killed and Several Others Badly Wounded.

VICTORIA, B. C., May 2.—The Empress of China arrived yesterday and reports that the City of Peking, shortly after leaving San Francisco for the Orient, on her last trip, was the scene of an extraordinary occurrence. A Chinese, N. G. Buck, ran amuck. The Chinaman was observed walking about the saloon where lady passengers and children were seated. The fellow at once drew a knife and stabbed a boy in the shoulder and right hand. Chief Engineer McClure interfered and was wounded seriously in the leg.

N. G. Buck then rushed viciously at a fellow passenger, Lee Shong, and nearly severed his head from the body. Lee Shong immediately expired. The crazed Chinaman was finally seized by the main deck watchman and placed in irons. When the Peking reached Yokohama, the prisoner was ordered to the deck for identification. His irons being removed, he seized a bar and nearly brained the chief officer and then tried to kill himself. The first officer was very seriously hurt, but will recover. The Chinese will be brought back to California for trial.

WARSAW, Ind., May 2.—Elmer Evers, 25 years old, living two miles west of here, while hitching a horse to a plow, was kicked in the stomach by the animal and killed. His father was killed in the same manner only nine months ago.

A Dog Circus and Animal Show.

The appearance all next week at Washington Opera House of Professor Sammells' trained animal show and dog circus promises to attract large audiences, and the children's matinee on Saturday afternoon is sure to be packed with the little ones, to whom it will be a treat of a life time. Shetland ponies and goats trained to the highest state of perfection; Professor Sammells with his circus of twenty-one educated dogs; Mrs. Marie Sammells with her troupe of fifteen trained monkeys in their jockey races on dogs, and other amusing performances, and a remarkable troupe of twenty-five trained tropical and Australian cockatoos of the most beautiful plumage and almost human intelligence. The greatest combination of trained animals and birds ever on the road. Don't let the children miss it.

MARRY DILLARD, chambermaid of the towboat Buckeye Boy, died on board between this place and Manchester Sunday morning. Her remains were put off at Manchester and embalmed, and sent to Catlettsburg, by rail. She was a mulatto, and weighed 320 pounds; age 34. Fatty degeneration of the heart was the cause of her death.

WILLIAM JONES TARTAN, of Conway Springs, Kan., has sued Pierce Dumas, a merchant, for $3,000 damages for "repeatedly and persistently addressing him in public places and in a loud tone of voice as 'Breckinridge'."

Morton's Balm For Cows Killed.

NEW YORK, May 2.—Ex-Vice President Levi P. Morton has filed with the court of claims at Albany a demand for $3,200 for 19 of the finest Guernsey cattle in the country, which were killed by the state board of health under the tuberculosis law. It is at the discretion of the court to make awards for cattle so killed. The claim of Mr. Morton is the first to be filed and the other owners of fancy herds who have suffered losses are watching with interest what will be done with it. If it is allowed, then claims aggregating $75,000 will be filed.

Arrested For Murder.

SALT LAKE CITY, May 2.—Charles Thiedo, a saloonkeeper, is under arrest for the murder of his wife. After the saloon was closed Monday night, screams were heard coming from the place, and shortly after midnight Thiedo went to another neighbor's, and crying his wife had been murdered. Mrs. Thiedo was found lying in a pool of blood near the saloon, with her head almost severed from the body. Thiedo first acknowledged, then denied having committed the deed.
